CIVIL ACTION NO. 14-07534- BRM-DEA

AMENDED JUDGMENT IN CIVIL ACTION
AGAINST DEFENDANT PORT AUTHORITY OF
NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY

The Court has ordered that:

- 1. Plaintiff Amanda Holley will recover from the Defendant, Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, the amount of $1,300,000.00;
- 2. Attorneys' fees and costs, if any, will be assessed following this Court's decisions on Defendant's post-trial motions, and, any resulting award will be added to the above amount and submitted by way of Amended Judgment;
- 3. Prejudgment interest may be assessed following this Court's decisions on Defendant's post-trial motions and Plaintiff's fee application, and any resulting award will be added to the above amount and submitted by way of Amended Judgment;

- 4. Post judgment interest will be assessed following this Court's decisions on Defendant's post-trial motions should any monetary recovery remain against the Port Authority from the date of judgment through the date of payment at the appropriate rate;¹
- 5. Plaintiff Amanda Holley did not prevail on the claims asserted against Defendant Erick Torres, and the action is dismissed on the merits against him;
- 6. Plaintiff Amanda Holley did not prevail on the claims asserted against individual Defendants Superintendent Michael A. Fedorko and Chief Michael Brown who were dismissed from this action as a result of Defendants' summary judgment motion; and
- 7. This action was tried by a jury before the Honorable Brian R. Martinotti, U.S.D.J., from September 17, 2018 through October 19, 2018, when a verdict was rendered.
